

On-line workshop with BALAJCZA

Tuesday, 29 June 2021

11 am-12 pm

" Verbal Communication in Business Presentation"

Verbal communication is a type of interpersonal communication which is expressed through spoken language. Verbal communication is most often accompanied by non-verbal communication.

It is the primary means of human communication. For verbal communication to take place, there must be a speaker and a listener. They use a code (language) that must be familiar to both people.

During the workshop we will discuss:

- ✓ Correct communication
- ✓ Communication skills
- ✓ Effective communication

The meeting will be hosted by Ms Olga Marek-Kostrzewska, a Polish language teacher at the Lingua Polonica school, and a marketing and PR specialist by profession. She built her experience working for companies such as Benefit Systems and at numerous marketing conferences.

The meeting will be held in Polish.
